SPOTLIGHT GALLERY

MAYORESSES—UNSUNG HEROINES

5 Jan-2 Feb

This exhibition offers a second opportunity to see a display of World War One mayoresses from 1914 to 1928 first shown in March 2018. The War Years in particular, gave these women an opportunity to find independent and important roles.

NEWARK PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY

6 Feb-9 Mar.

The Photographic Society presents a selection of its members pictures, a majority of which have won internal competitions, national and international awards. Images include monochrome, portraits, nature, sport and landscape. Work is for sale.

TEXTILE ART

13 Mar-13 April

This is Deb Matthysz's first showing in the Spotlight Gallery of her textile work which includes wall art and embroidered beaded jewellery. Work is for sale.

WAYS OF SEEING

17 April-18 May

The exhibition has been produced by a local group of visually impaired artists working with the Nottinghamshire charity—My Sight. This group of artists have embraced their individual sight loss and produced art that challenges the norms. with surprising results.

IN OUR VIEW

22 May-22 June

An exhibition featuring a selection of drawings and paintings by students who attend the Workers' Educational Association (WEA) Drawing and Painting classes in Newark. Led by artist and tutor Margot Shores.
